

Reaching Audiences in the International Event Community

About the ISES Global Partner Program

The ISES Global Partner Program is designed to provide organizations and brands who want to connect with decision makers within the global event community a simple and cost effective route to market.

With a combined buying power of key products and services in excess of $21 billion, and access to a global market of over $280 billion, the ISES Global Partner Program will help you expand your reach and visibility with ISES_BecomeAPartner_Button a multi-platform program designed specifically to meet your objectives.

To learn more about how the ISES Global Partner Program can help your business, download our program document here or email partnerships@ises.com for more information.
